

California Legislature

JOINT INFORMATIONAL HEARING

Joint Legislative Committee on Emergency Management - Assemblymember Christy Smith, Chair
Assembly Committee on Communications and Conveyance - Assemblymember Miguel Santiago, Chair

Emergency Alerts and Evacuations – Lives Saved or Lives Lost?

Monday, July 1, 2019

Upon Adjournment of Session

State Capitol – Room 4203

AGENDA

I. Welcome and Opening Remarks

- Assemblymember Christy Smith, Chair, Joint Legislative Committee on Emergency Management
- Assemblymember Miguel Santiago, Chair, Assembly Committee on Communications and Conveyance
- Senator Hannah-Beth Jackson, Vice-Chair, Joint Legislative Committee on Emergency Management

II. State Perspective

- Mark Ghilarducci, Director, Governor's Office of Emergency Services
- Michael Picker, President, California Public Utilities Commission
- Chief Thomas Porter, Director, California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection

III. Alerting Authorities

- Sean McGlynn, City Manager for the City of Santa Rosa, representing the League of California Cities
- Undersheriff Jon Crawford, Napa County, representing the County Supervisors' Association of California
- Christopher Godley, Director of Emergency Management, Sonoma County, representing the Rural County Representatives of California
- Sheriff Kory Honea, Butte County representing the California State Sheriffs' Association

IV. Technology Providers and Utilities

- Steve Carlson, Government Affairs Counsel, CTIA-The Wireless Association
- Todd Watson, Manager - Network Engineering, AT&T California
- Jesus Roman, Chief Legislative Counsel, Verizon
- Carolyn McIntyre, President for CCTA - California Cable & Telecommunications Association
- August Ghio, Director of Emergency Management, San Diego Gas & Electric

V. Public Comment